Entrance Area. AKC does not allow Clubs to make special accommodations for certain dogs (such as dogs determined by their owners to be “reactive”). The entrance point to the trial and to the search areas will be very busy and not conducive to extremely reactive dogs. We are not able to change the environment for specific dogs. Possession of Odors and Training. Chapter 5. Section 26 of the Scent Work Regulations state “No person other than those engaged in the administration of a trial shall be in possession of any target odor when on the trial grounds. Spectator Area. Spectators are encouraged. Any person not handling a dog in the current class, or any person who has already completed their run in the class may choose to watch the search from the spectator area. No one outside the search area may assist the handler or disclose the location of the hide.

Crating space will be in vehicles. Longs Peak Dog Training Club and Front Range Community College will not be responsible for any lost or damaged items.

Exhibitors are responsible for cleaning up after their dog(s).
